

Protest against tax-avoiding corporations

STOP!
tax dodgers

Saturday 4 December, 1pm, Vodafone Clumber Street

Protests will take place in towns and cities across the country. www.ukuncut.org.uk

Avoiding tax is big business. British corporations avoid up to £25 billion a year in tax, with major offenders including Vodafone (owes £6 billion); Boots (paid £0 in tax last year); and Top Shop, where boss Philip Green has signed ownership of his company over to his wife in the tax haven of Monte Carlo. He now pays no tax in Britain.

Tax-avoiding corporations cost the government billions each year, money that could be used to invest in services and protect jobs. Instead, HMRC are writing off tax bills for the richest in our society, whilst sending bills to pensioners, workers and others who they claim owe thousands due to their miscalculations.

Notts Save Our Services will be joining a national day of action against tax-avoiding corporations, starting from Vodafone in Clumber Street and visiting other tax-avoiders along the way.

Tell the corporations: it's time to pay tax!

Join us on Saturday 4 December at 1pm outside Vodafone. Bring your banners, placards, whistles. Tweet the demo #ukuncut
